A mind-bending
novel from the author of Life A

metaphysical
whodunit, chock-

It is also an outrageous
verbal stunt: a 300-page novel

The late Georges Perec was connected to this sort of school, and at least one intelligent English critic has thought that Perec wrote some of the most boring novels of the twentieth century. This book, however, is manifestly not one of them.

Perec is noted for his constrained writing. His 300-page novel La disparition (1969) is a lipogram, written with natural sentence structure and correct grammar, but using only Perec is considered a "literary experimentalist." A Void is a literary feat: it is, in short, a novel written without a single E in its 300 pages.
